1. Ten and a half kilometers to the northeast of Varpalota, a large new chemical factory was brought into production in January 1951. The factory has been constructed underground and built into a hillside facing south. Only the chimneys and vents are visible above the surface of the ground.
2. [REDACTED] the factory is engaged on the production of toxic gases; a light green haze is occasionally seen above the hillside.
3. There is a resident team of four Soviet Army officers, headed by a lieutenant-colonel, attached to the plant.
